

LOCALS

—Miss Lucille Garver is confined to her home with a severe attack of tonsillitis.

—Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kimmel and daughter, Gretchen, returned home Sunday after spending the winter in Florida.

—The Sentinel was in error last week in announcing a birth. A son was recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Welton Ferriman of Artesia, N. M., instead of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kaufman of Lakewood. The Sentinel was misinformed.

—Mrs. George McNeal entertained at dinner Monday evening in honor of Mrs. George Woodruff's birthday anniversary.

—A family dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoover on Sunday in honor of Mrs. George Woodruff's birthday anniversary. Mr. Dudley Newton and Miss Eleanor Smith of Cleveland were the out of town guests.

—The Thank offering meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent society of the Congregational church will meet April 7 with Mrs. W. J. Drew at the parsonage. There will be a speaker from Oberlin, whose topic will be, "Korea." Tea will be served.

—The Medina Eastern Stars were entertained at Seville by the lodge there Tuesday evening of this week.

—The Women's Relief Corps will have a picnic dinner in the lodge room Wednesday of next week. The members of the H. G. Blake Post are cordially invited.

—The Winyah club will have their regular picnic supper Wednesday evening, April 6.

—The Ludine club held a picnic supper at the home of Mrs. H. C. West Monday evening.

—The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church met Monday afternoon in the church parlors. Mrs. Smith's class served.

—Easter day in Medina started out pleasant enough, but about noon rain set in and continued until Monday, snow being mixed with the rain on the latter day. The inclemency kept many from attending the special musical services at the various churches.

—The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. W. J. Wall on Thursday afternoon of next week, at 2:30 o'clock.

—Paul A. Young of Medina was recently initiated as a member of the Grange of Ohio State University.

—The president and a number of other officials of the A. C. & V. railroad company passed thru Medina on Monday morning on one of the new gasoline motor cars which were used in passenger service between Akron and Copley a year ago, and which will be resumed again soon. The officials made the thru trip to Delphos, the western terminus of the line, and returned to Akron Tuesday afternoon.

—Local Odd Fellows joined with members of the Brunswick lodge at the latter place Thursday night in putting on the first degree of the encampment for fifteen candidates, nine from Brunswick and six from Medina.

—A case of smallpox is reported in Brunswick, and on Monday Dr. H. P. H. Robinson vaccinated the pupils of the Brunswick school.

—The body of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Aylard, which died soon after its birth at Pinecastle, Fla., two weeks ago, was brought to Brunswick for burial last week. A brief service was conducted at the tomb by Rev. W. H. Bryenton of Medina.

—Bert Tompkins and family will move this week from the old Pythian Sister Home on North Huntington street to the tenant house on the Mary House farm, Lake road.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Troutman have taken apartments in Andy Maple's house, North Huntington street.

—Mr. Albright and son of the Acme Grocery Co., Akron, accompanied by three other gentlemen from that city, were in Medina Tuesday, looking over the American House property, presumably with a view to acquiring it. As to what decision, if any, they came to, the Sentinel was unable to ascertain. That the Acme company has had its eye on Medina for some time as a prospective link in its chain of grocery stores, is of common knowledge, and that inability to secure a prominent location has been the only reason that they are not already established here. It is understood that the Albrights will come to Medina again next week for another conference with the owner of the hotel property.

—The new fire siren arrived in town last week Thursday night and on Saturday night was given a try-out. While its tone carries a little louder than the one which it replaced, it is not satisfactory, at least at the present time. There will be another meeting of the fire department tonight, Friday, at which time the siren will be given the second and final test. If it fails to measure up to requirements, it will be returned to the manufacturers. Sirens have proved satisfactory in other villages, but for some reason or another do not fill the bill in Medina.

—Harry Abrams has been confined to his home the past week with a severe cold, but was able to come down town on Wednesday.

—Louis Best sang at an entertainment in Lodi Tuesday night given by the Eastern Stars of that village for their Masonic brethren.

—A chattel mortgage made out by a local attorney caused considerable mirth among the attaches of County Recorder Frank Styer's office one day this week soon after it was filed, when it was discovered that the erudite lawyer had spelled heifer "heffer," and child "chuld."

—The speaker at the Kiwanis club luncheon last Friday was Rev. Wm. J. Drew. He emphasized the cultivation of a deeper spirit of brotherhood between employers and employees as being the only correction of the strained relations between capital and labor. The speaker stated that Kiwanis exemplifies the true brotherhood spirit.

—Mrs. D. Hemmeyer purchased the Goodwin property adjoining her home on West Washington street this week.

—Easter services at the Methodist church last Sunday were well attended, notwithstanding the inclement weather. At the morning service six were baptized and fourteen received into the church. The cantata, "From Cross to Crown," was enjoyed by a fairly large audience in the afternoon, as was the illustrated talk by Rev. Bryenton in the evening on the history and struggles of John Bunyan.

—Easter day's observance at the Congregational church began with a sunrise meeting at 6 o'clock with a good attendance. The church was filled for the 10 o'clock service. The music was fine and the entire service impressive. Forty-two new members were received. The attendance at the evening musical service, given by the choir and soloists, was not as large as it would have otherwise been, on account of the heavy rains. The program was excellent in all its parts.

—Mr. Arthur A. Rood and Miss Donna L. Crane, both of Sharon Center, were united in marriage last Saturday at the Congregational church, by Rev. Wm. J. Drew.

—The Harmony club will meet with Miss Irene Beedle on Saturday of this week. A "Hard Times" supper will be served.

—The annual inspection of Chapter No. 30, R. A. M., was held in Medina Wednesday evening.

—Mr. Albert Whitney and family are moving into the N. P. Nichols home recently purchased by W. H. Winch.

—Lee Woods and family are moving in with his sister, Mrs. Boswell.

—Mrs. Eva Warner entertained the Tuesday Afternoon club on March 29.

—Mrs. Hyatt, who has been employed in the Fuller store for some time, has accepted a position in the Lodi hospital.

—Leyton Carter of Cleveland, a well-known publicist and expert in municipal management, spoke to the Kiwanis club members at their luncheon on Thursday.

—Mrs. J. E. Moore has sold her home on West Washington street to Chas. Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Anderson are moving in this week.

—The Child Conservation League will meet next Monday afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Thatcher.

IT MAY BE HERE

Eli Tuercher, prominent Rittman citizen, died last week.

S. L. Naftzer, 75, prominent resident of West Salem, is dead.

Mrs. Rose Belden died at the home of her son in Belden last week.

Dr. C. F. Park, prominent citizen of Grafton, is dead at the age of 75.

A cooperative grocery store is being successfully operated in Grafton.

Checker players have been holding a tournament for championship at Western Star.

David Yoder, aged resident of River Styx, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Brubaker, in Mahoning county, March 18.

A bridge south of Garden Isle, on the B. & O. gave way one day last week and dethatched several freight cars, delaying traffic for several days.

James Coates, 71, a resident of Boneta nearly all of his life, died there on Monday of last week. The body was placed in the mausoleum at Wadsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McGlaughlin of West Salem celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Tuesday of last week. They have many relatives in Medina county.

The Farmer's Banking Company of Sterling and the Stebbins Banking Company of Creston have installed on their vault doors a system of burglar proof locks, whereby the vault doors are automatically relocked when the combination boxes are burned, punched or blown out by yeggs.

Farmers in the vicinity of Rittman are considering forming a cooperative creamery company, the object being to create a market close at hand for the milk and cream coming from the dairy herds of Milton township. The price of milk at Akron and other points has been unsatisfactory to milk producers around Rittman and transportation difficulties have also been encountered.

Louis Anson Saunier, officially reported as having been killed in action in France, dropped into his old home town, Smithville, a few days ago, just as an attorney was completing the settlement of an estate in which Saunier, if not "dead," would have been a beneficiary. An attempt will at once be made to bring about for Saunier a legal resurrection.

DEATH OF JULIA HORTON

Mrs. Julia Horton, 83, widow of the late Amos B. Horton who died in November, 1919, passed away at the home of her son, Frank Horton, four miles north of Medina, early Thursday morning, March 31. Funeral services will be held on Saturday afternoon at the Church of Christ, and interment made in Spring Grove cemetery.

SHARON

The special meetings to have been held at the M. E. church have been postponed owing to road conditions. Those from away who attended the funeral of the late J. P. Coats, were Mrs. Colter and Mr. Crocker of Wadsworth, Mrs. Jane Roshen and William Cain of Medina, Elmer Phelps and Paul Miller of Akron, and Mr. Phelps of Seville. Rev. Crawford of Centerburg had charge of the service.

Fern Swigart of Wittenberg College, has been spending a few days with her parents.

John Swigart is able to get around with the aid of crutches.

Mildred, Elbert and Leon Waters of Wadsworth, are spending the week with friends in Sharon.

Mylo McCoy of Akron spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. V. J. Waters.

Mrs. Winifred McCoy of Wooster is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. V. J. Waters.

The M. E. choir, consisting of 30 voices of Wadsworth, under the direction of Eva Fulmer Orton, will give their Easter cantata at the Sharon M. E. church Sunday evening, April 3.

Solid Mahogany for Every Man's Money...

These days, when so much period furniture has a Queen Ann front and a Mary Ann back, it seems good to stumble onto a piece of good old Solid Mahogany—Even in the dark.

Solid Mahogany—that's the Word. We like to liken it to our Values, for both are hewed out of solid timber—not glued up with veneer.

Every price ticket in this Store can be turned bottom side up and reviewed. They are not like the false back Davenport that must be cornered to be correct.

We're sawing wood down here at Medina's best Men's Store—and its Solid Mahogany.
